ROBERT COOKE, CLARENCIEUX, #m 1569.

EDITED BY

FREDERIC WILLIAM WEAVER, M.A.,

LATE DEMY OF MAGDALEN COLLEGE, OXFORD,

Editor of "The Visitations of the County of Somerset in 1531, 1573."

Privately printed for the Editor by WILLIAM POLLARD, AND Co., NORTH STREET,

Other MSS. containing Herefordshire Pedigrees are given in the same book, pp. 207-8, among which is "Pedigrees from the Visitation of 1569," Harl. MS. 615, f. 20.

The above list may be supplemented and corrected by the following extract, taken from Dr. Marshall's "Notes on the Heralds' Visitations." (See "The Genealogist," N.S., Vol. ii., No. 6, p. 150.)

HEREFORDSHIRE.

"No Visitation of this County has been printed. Visitations were taken

"by Cooke in 1569 (College of Arms, D. 12, G. 9.)

"by St. George in 1634 (College of Arms, C. 25.)

"and by Sir Henry St. George in 1683 (College of Arms, K. 6.)

"Sims, Noble and Gutch say it was visited in 1586, and the latter also notes "Visitations of 1615 and 1619, but I have met with no evidence of these assertions. "Noble asserts that the 1683 Visitation was probably in the possession of the Earl "of Egmont, but I am not aware that any copy of it now exists, except in the Office "of Arms."

It is improbable that there was a Visitation of Herefordshire, in 1586, and indeed no such Visitation seems to be known to the College of Arms; the only indication of such a Visitation that I have met with is in Harl. MS 1442. The fly-leaf of that MS is entitled "Herefordshire, 1586." The MS.

is a transcript either by Wythie, Penson, or Vincent (cf. Harl. Catalogue in the B.M.). It has additions by Sandford, Rouge Dragon, in 1676, and by others,

On ff. 2*b and 3* of Harl. MS. 1442 occur the arms of the following families, entered at the Visitation of Hereford, 1634.

Williams, 1634.

Younger, 1634.

I have chosen Harl. MS. 615, which seems to me the best authority (outside the College) for the Visitation of 1569.

The MS. contains 61 pedigrees of Herefordshire families; 60 belonging to Worcestershire; 62 to Gloucestershire; and 82 to Shropshire.

The transcript was made at the charge of Alexander Evesham, of whose death there is an account on folio 1. This account is written in a later hand than the MS, but whether it is the same "later hand" as that appearing in some of the pedigrees is doubtful.

"In the year of our Lord God 1592 dyed Alexander Evesham and in 28th day of desember he dyed in the house of the Lady Stafford at Westmester and was buryed on the South Syde of the Chorch of Seint Margrett his hed lyeth just agaynst the end of the pew of the left hand; he was the sonn of William Evesham of Wellington in the County of Hereford which William dyed in the yeare of our Lord God 1584 and was buryed in the Chorch of Seint Jamsses in marke lane in londone he lyes buryed on the north syde of the Chorche. Thys wrytten by me Epiphanyus Evesham in the yeare of our Lord god 1592 whos soule Resteth with Gode. Amen."

The pedigrees of Hackluit (1st portion) and Haworthe, and all the Evesham pedigrees are in a later hand, as are also some minor additions, which are noted as they occur. The latest date (1596) in the MS. is to be found in the pedigree of Blount, this shews that the additions cannot have been made by Alexr. Evesham, for he died in 1592.

The arms are in trick, in some cases coloured, as are also the Crests. Folio 2 contains the arms of Evesham, elaborately drawn and coloured.

There is a MS. in the Bodleian Library, Oxford (Ashmolean, 831), which contains pedigrees from the Visitation of Worcestershire, Herefordshire and Gloucestershire, taken in 1569. I have very carefully collated Harl. 615 with Ashmolean 831, and have noted the differences as they occur. The MSS. seem to be quite independent of each other.

The Pedigrees in Ashmolean MS. 831 are written in a small secretary-hand, probably by Ralph Brooke. The arms are tricked. Between the 2nd and 3rd pages is fixed a smaller sheet of paper, on which by another old hand is written an index. This MS. contains the pedigrees found in Harl. MS. 615, with the following eleven exceptions:

Breynton.

Dabyton.

Evesham.

Haworthe.

Monington of Sarnsfield.

Myntryche.

Nott.

Tompkins.

Welford.

Whitney.

Winston of Llangarren.

Forty-seven pedigrees of Herefordshire families, taken from various sources, are given in the Rev. C. J. Robinson's "Mansions and Manors of Herefordshire."

I have made use of these, and have referred to the book under the letter R. I take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Robinson for other notes, which he has kindly sent me.

Great confusion is made by the transcribers between the names Herefordshire (spelt Herfordshire) and Hertfordshire. An example of this occurs in Berry's "Sussex Genealogies," p. 10, where for Acorne Berry in co-Hertford, read Aconbury in co. Hereford.

In many cases of doubt and difficulty, I have consulted Harl. MSS. 1442 and 1545, and have given additions and corrections from both of them.

MS. 1545 is much more valuable than MS. 1442, which contains numerous mis-spellings, &c. MS. 1545, f. 3, is headed:

This Vissitation was made by Robert Cooke, Clarenceulx.

Then follow the arms of the City of Hereford:

Gu. three lions pass, guard. Ar.

and this note:

"The Vissitation of Herefford was made in A⁶ 1569 and at the same time was major of Herefford Bevis Cartwright Thomas Havard Rowland Rys William Rawlyns Walter Cariden Richard Partridge John Mayland John Gibbs Henery Dudston and Thomas Church Aldermen of ye sayd cittye of Herefford ye aforesayd vissitation begining at the ffirst leafe in this Booke and ends at the 32. 100 leafe(s) following (ye rest of ye descents) are collections and addittions as occasion hath offered them to me and have added

R. MUNDY."

Then follow these 31 pedigrees in the following order:

Chippenham.

Seborne.

Welford.

Pichard.

Scroope and Harford.

Pateshall.

Dauntesey.

Tompkins.

Moreton.

Skull.

Knyll.

Blaney.

Phillipps.

Hackluit.

Barrow.

Hayday.

Hayward.

Capell.

Apparry.

Delabere.

Gernons.

Warnecombe.

Prise.

Downes.

Dabyton.

Crofte.

Rowdon.

Glluiam (Guillim).

Maynston.

Walwyn.

Harper.

On f. 32b occur the words "Here ends the Vissitation."

At the end of the 1569 Visitation I have added eighteen pedigrees belonging to the end of the XVI or the beginning of the XVII century, and, in each case, have noted the Harl. MS. from which the transcript is taken.

I beg to thank all those who have helped me during the progress of this work, and hope that it may be found a useful addition to the Antiquarian Literature of the County of Hereford.

"The Glory of Children are their fathers."
